Connie (last name?) called and could not make it, - they had just moved. Mary Wittenberg did not call, and was not there.

The tape was not too good, and I found it quite hard trying to make notes and listen at the same time, and only got a little down from the beginning.

Questions were by, I believe, Elliott first, Trudy, Lita, - then two I couldn't identify, and Dick Wachtel.

The first question was in regard to non-identity and that of living in consciousness. The introduction of objective morality. In remaining awake and manifest accordingly (If I am - I am). Allowances of thoughts, "ought to do something else" would take away from the attempt of consciousness, - one would no longer be conscious.

Trudy asked regarding the reading (believe that was regarding diagrams) - how she now understood through experience. Your answer was regarding the thought of evolution, the aim, and to grow in that direction. - Understanding of the ray of creation. Evolution as an upgoing octave, - involution that of going down. Creation of equilibrium. You spoke about the Law of Three and the Law of Seven - Three being that of involution and seven that of Evolution.

Making impressions conscious. Of Nitrogene, Hydrogene and Carbon. The understanding of Evolution according to the law.

Understanding that which we do - that it is for growing, for waking up and working for that.
